

EVENT & FILM GUIDE – FEBRUARY 2026

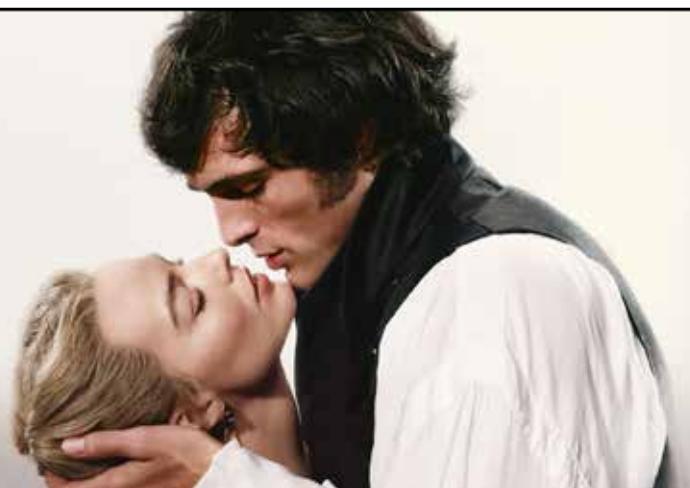

Not Only Fred Dagg (M)

Running Time: 103 minutes

An intimate tribute to the life and work of one of Australia & New Zealand's greatest satirists, John Clarke, told through the eyes of his daughter Lorin.

In public, Clarke was famously guarded about his life, but at home he was an open book. Through a remarkable series of recorded conversations, we trace his steadfast resistance to authority back to his childhood; unpack his controversial decision to leave New Zealand for Australia in 1977; and gain delightful insights into his four decades in the entertainment industry.

Weaving together personal anecdotes, a rich television archive, tales from international comedy greats and the riches from more than 200 boxes of his work and letters, this film is a daughter gifting her father back to his audience.

Wuthering Heights (TBC)

Running Time: 136 minutes

A bold and original imagining of one of the greatest love stories of all time, Emerald Fennell's Wuthering Heights stars Margot Robbie as Cathy and Jacob Elordi as Heathcliff, whose forbidden passion for one another turns from romantic to intoxicating in an epic tale of lust, love and madness.

Marty Supreme (R13)

Running Time: 149 minutes

Academy Award® nominee Timothée Chalamet (A Complete Unknown) plays a man looking to achieve ping-pong greatness in this film from one of the Safdie brothers (Uncut Gems). Co-stars Gwyneth Paltrow. Loosely based on the life of actual table tennis hustler-turned-champion Marty Reisman.

Song Sung Blue (M)

Running Time: 132 minutes

Based on a true story, two down-on-their-luck musicians (Hugh Jackman and Kate Hudson) form a joyous Neil Diamond tribute band, proving it's never too late to find love and follow your dreams.

The Choral (M)

Running Time: 113 minutes

1916. As war rages on the Western Front, the Choral Society in Ramsden, Yorkshire has lost most of its men to the army. The Choral's ambitious committee, determined to press ahead, decides to recruit local young males to swell their ranks. They must also engage a new chorus master, and despite their suspicions that he has something to hide, their best bet seems to be Dr. Henry Guthrie (Ralph Fiennes) – driven, uncompromising, and recently returned from a career in Germany. As conscription papers start to arrive, the whole community discovers that the best response to the chaos that is laying waste to their lives is to make music together.

The Housemaid (R16)

Running Time: 131 minutes

The Housemaid is a wildly entertaining thriller starring Sydney Sweeney and Amanda Seyfried, based on the best-selling book. From director Paul Feig, the film plunges audiences into a twisted world where perfection is an illusion, and nothing is as it seems. Trying to escape her past, Millie (Sweeney) accepts a job as a live-in housemaid for the wealthy Nina (Seyfried) and Andrew Winchester (Brandon Sklenar). But what begins as a dream job quickly unravels into something far more dangerous — a sexy, seductive game of secrets, scandal, and power. Behind the Winchesters' closed doors lies a world of shocking twists that will leave you guessing until the very end.

Hamnet (M)

Running Time: 126 minutes

From Academy Award® winning writer/director Chloé Zhao (Nomadland), Hamnet tells the powerful story of love and loss that inspired the creation of Shakespeare's timeless masterpiece, Hamlet.

Starring Golden Globe winner Jessie Buckley and Oscar-nominee Paul Mescal.

Anchor Me: The Don McGlashan Story (Ex)

Running Time: 88 minutes

Whether through his influential bands, legendary act The Front Lawn, or compositions for film and television, the songs of Don McGlashan are well known to the Kiwi ear. Less familiar is the story of the man behind the music, but that's about to change thanks to acclaimed cultural documentarian Shirley Horrocks (Peter Peryer: The Art of Seeing, Paul Callaghan: Dancing with Atoms).

This inspiring documentary catches the highs and lows of a singular career, revelling in tales of backstage antics and unearthing the deeply personal stories behind chart-topping anthems. Famous colleagues like Neil Finn and Toa Fraser extol McGlashan's artistry in song-writing, while interviews with family members provide intimate insights into a unique creative personality.

Mārama (R16)

Running Time: 89 minutes

1859. Mary Stevens (Ariāna Osborne), a young Māori woman, is summoned from New Zealand to North Yorkshire by a mysterious note. To survive, she becomes the governess Mary at Hawkser Manor under the seemingly benevolent eye of Sir Nathaniel Cole (Toby Stephens), a charming landowner whose fortune was forged in the South Seas. Cole speaks her language and insists he can help her. But the walls of his home are hung with Māori taonga, and by night Mary finds herself haunted by memories that are not her own.

In a bid to discover the truth about herself and Cole, Mary realises she must face a bloody reckoning if she ever wants to be free of Hawkser Manor.

Hawkins Youth Theatre Company 2026

MISSION

Hawkins Youth Theatre Company is dedicated to nurturing the youth within our local community by providing them with a platform to develop their stagecraft, build their confidence, and expand their knowledge of theatre and performance in a safe, supportive, and collaborative environment.

CLASS OUTLINE

We want to deliver to our youth diverse opportunities to perform, develop their artistic abilities and to learn the fundamentals of theatre performance and stagecraft. We will be teaching a variety of theatre based techniques from script reading to self creation and give the freedom to explore growth and share creative expressions. Weekly classes are 60 minutes in duration, and students are expected to arrive ready to go from the very start so there is time to cover the content. They must also attend every class they are enrolled for, only with the exception of illness or a planned event with notice given. Maintaining this commitment is essential for developing their skills and having continuous growth as a collective.

CLASSES

Levels are determined by school year.
